Old Business:

Minutes

Commissioner Grama motioned to approve the minutes of the August 23, 2011 Redevelopment Commission meeting. Commissioner Curtis seconded. The minutes were approved as written 5-0.

Project Updates

City Engineer Dave Buck updated the Commission on the following projects:

- Lindberg Bridge – Progress is continuing. The contractor has been working multiple shifts, all days of the week as weather permits. Concrete deck pours have been completed. The concrete for the base of the railing system is being poured. Approaches to the bridge have been started. The completion date has been moved to the end of the month.
- Harrison Street – The section from Sheets to University is open and working well. Storm structure and underground utility work on the area from University to Russell Street is almost completed. Work will continue to Jischke Dr. and reopen before the end of this construction season.
- Cumberland Avenue Reconstruction Phase 1 – A final change order from Fairfield Contractors will be presented today for cleanup of miscellaneous items from Phase I.
- Cumberland Avenue Reconstruction Phase 2 – Plans are 80% complete with the bidding schedule to be set by mid-October. Utility relocations have already started. Costs have been substantially reduced with Duke Energy by leaving poles in the center of the roundabout. Right-of-way acquisitions are underway.

- Yeager Road Reconstruction Phase 1 – Demolition has started. The two structures are down. Utility relocations have begun. The Western Interceptor Division V is doing some of the sanitary relocation work that dovetails into the project. All utilities have been given the notice to proceed.

Parks Superintendent Joe Payne noted trees that are removed for the mentioned projects, are transplanted in Happy Hollow Park along the trail project whenever possible. Mr. Payne also updated the Commission on the following projects:

- Wabash Heritage Trail Extension – Project is progressing, but still behind schedule. Work on the shelter and landscaping will be completed next year. It is estimated that crews will be off of SR 43 and SR 443 by the end of October. INDOT work on SR 43 from I65 to Robinson Street should also be completed by next month.

- Tommy Johnston Park – Park is being heavily used. Work is near completion.

Other

Mayor Dennis commented on the scope and significance of the Lindberg Bridge Project. He noted that safety is of primary importance for the completion of the bridge.

Mayor Dennis also expressed his gratitude and appreciation to Larry Oates, owner of KitchenArt, for his continued sponsorship and support of Art on the Wabash.

Joe Payne mentioned that renovations of the playground at LaGrange and Hamilton in University Farm have been completed. The park was originally funded through the Redevelopment Commission.

There was no further old business.
